

1.37.12.1: The Cosmic History Chronicles. Releases of the Book of the Throne and the Book of the Avatar.

Dear Synchrononauts,

The planet is bleeding. Humanity stands at an unprecedented crossroads. The proliferation of ignorance, the systematic destruction of nature, the oppression of animals, and the rise of authoritarian ideologies paint an alarming global picture. The population has surged by over 6.5 billion in just a century, bringing with it an overwhelming expansion of suffering, especially for the most defenseless: animals, children, and marginalized minorities. Life has lost its value, and the collective soul is vanishing in a storm of consumption algorithms, faceless wars, and hollow religions.

In this context of chaos and decline, one living relic emerge: The Cosmic History Chronicles, a channeled, monumental, and deeply transformative body of work. Conceived by José Argüelles (Valum Votan), this seven-volume series was transmitted between 2004 and 2011, just before Argüelles transcended in mysterious circumstances. Although he entrusted the project to Stephanie South during the process, the transmission did not find its intended course. It deviated from the original purpose—not out of ill will, but due to interference from spiritual ego, the system, and control networks that operate even within the field of consciousness.

This current transmission of the first two volumes does not seek to compete, but to share from the heart, in fidelity to the original purpose: to liberate the soul, awaken universal memory, and heal time.

The Cosmic History Chronicles are not mere spiritual texts. They are a galactic encyclopedia, a cartography of higher consciousness, a master key for the evolution of the human soul.

Volume 1: The Book of the Throne represents the crown chakra, the divine connection with Galactic Mind. The Throne is the axis of cosmic will seeking to manifest through the purity of the human heart.

Volume 2: The Book of the Avatar descends to the root chakra, representing the embodiment of divinity on the earthly plane. The Avatar is the awakened being who walks the Earth to remind others of their stellar origin.

Both texts are tools of spiritual initiation—living keys to restore lost harmony and activate the dormant circuits of our multidimensional perception.

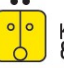

In a world dominated by the 12:60 virus, many self-proclaimed spiritualists—even fervent followers of the Law of Time—have fallen prey to the dominant paradigm:  $\text{Time} \times \text{Energy} = \text{Money}$ . They commodify the cosmic science as if it were a fairground product. But this science belongs to no one—and to everyone. True knowledge transmission is based on culture, not transaction. When someone offers a song, a poem, or a theorem to another being without expecting anything in return, nothing is lost: both are enriched. That is the difference between culture and commerce, between soul and ego, between evolution and repetition.

The events in Gaza remind us of the darkest horrors of the 20th century. Bombs decimating entire neighborhoods, covert genocides, human lives exterminated as if they were statistics. This third world war is not declared—it seeps through the cracks of the collective soul. José Argüelles prophesied that in 2029, an event would occur with the same or greater global impact than 9/11... That is why The Cosmic History Chronicles cannot wait. The time is now.

The Law of Time reminds us: Time x Energy = Art. The delivery of these volumes is not a sale. It is a synchronological transmission. It is not given to just anyone—it is given to those ready to receive, because this genuine offering can only be made from within the Synchronic Order. That is the condition.

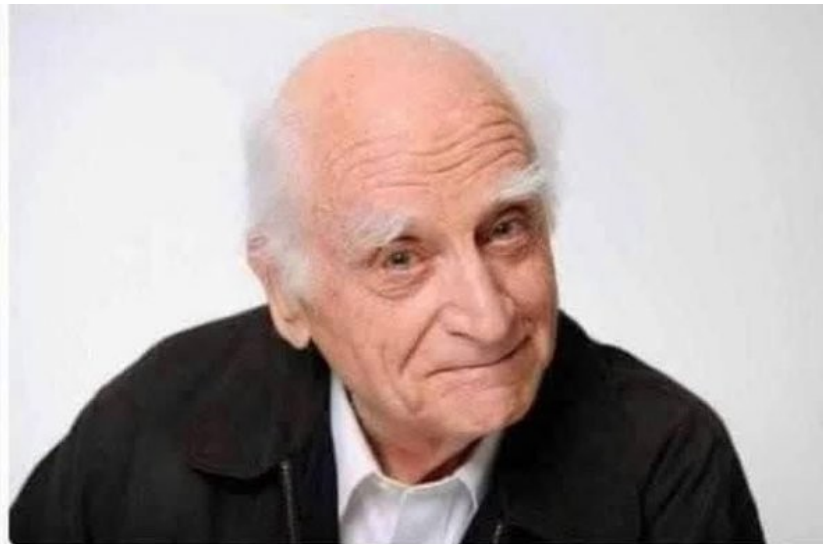

This delivery takes place precisely at the beginning of the 12th Moon, the Moon of Cooperation, within the Blue Rhythmic Storm year, KIN 19, preparing the path for the next cycle: the Yellow Resonant Seed year, KIN 124. This upcoming year holds one of the hidden keys explaining why this offering is being made now, creating a deep resonance node in the time matrix—a reactivation point of stellar memory and the collective mission.

The transmission will continue into the next synchronic year, via Telegram and Instagram, with the delivery of Volume 3: The Book of Mystery, which will explore art as the expression of the absolute. It is thanks to art that we are here, on this plane of existence, and it is through the realm of imagination that we can manifest our reality, making the invisible visible.

"Si usted tiene un pan y yo tengo un euro, y yo voy y le compro el pan, yo tendré un pan y usted un euro, y verá un equilibrio en ese intercambio; esto es, A tiene un euro y B tiene pan, y a la inversa, B tiene el pan y A el euro. Este es, pues, un equilibrio perfecto. Pero si usted tiene un soneto de Verlaine, o el teorema de Pitágoras, y yo no tengo nada, y usted me los enseña, al final de ese intercambio yo tendré el soneto y el teorema, pero usted los habrá conservado. En el primer caso, hay equilibrio. Eso es mercancía. En el segundo, hay crecimiento. Eso es cultura."

Are you ready to remember? This transmission, offered now, is genuine. It is for those who vibrate with an awakened heart. It is for those who respect life and recognize themselves in others. For as the wise Maya once said: In Lak'ech – I am another you.

Do not feed suffering any longer. Do not take part in the cycle of pain.
Make life valuable again. Respect yourself and others. Join the Synchronic Order.

With love and purpose,
Galactic Maya 999.
